Three Points for Consideration.

During the past five years the VEGETINE has been steadily working itself into public favor, and those who were at first most incredulous in regard to its merits are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

There are three essential causes for those having such a horror of patent medicines, changing their opinion and leaning their influence toward the advancement of VEGETINE. 1st—It is an honestly-prepared medicine from barks, roots and herbs. 2d—It honestly accomplishes all that is claimed for it, without leaving any bad effects in the system. 3d—It presents honest vouchers in testimonials from honest, well-known citizens, whose signatures are a sufficient guarantee of their earnestness in the matter. Taking into consideration the vast quantity of medicine brought conspicuously before the public through the flaming advertisements in the newspaper columns, with no proof of merit or genuine vouchers of what it has done, we should be pardoned for manifesting a small degree of pride in presenting the following testimonial from Rev. J. S. Dickerson, D. D., the popular and ever-genial pastor of the South Baptist Church, Boston:

The Tired Body Sues for Sleep.

Boston, March 16, 1874.

H. R. Stevens, Esq:

Dear Sir—It is as much from a sense of duty as of gratitude that I write to say that your VEGETINE—even if it is a patent medicine—has been of great help to me when nothing else seemed to avail which I could safely use. Either excessive mental work or unusual care brings upon me a nervous exhaustion that desperately needs sleep, but as desperately defies it. Night after night the poor, tired body sues for sleep until the day-dawn is welcomed back, and we begin our work tired out with an almost fruitless chase after work. Now I have found that a little VEGETINE taken just before I retire gives me sweet and immediate sleep, and without any of the evil effects of the usual narcotics. I think two things would tend to make brain-workers sleep. 1st—A little less work. 2d—A little more VEGETINE. The prescription has helped me.

Now I have a particular horror of "patent medicine," but I have a greater horror of being afraid to tell the straight out truth. The VEGETINE has helped me, and I own it up. Yours &c.,

J. S. DICKERSON.

Valuable Evidence.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, D. D., formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be esteemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years' experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounce it invaluable:

Providence, R. I., 161 Transit Street,

H. R. Stevens, Esq.:

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating, renovating tonic.

O. T. Walker.

Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, Pastor of the M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as inflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative power of VEGETINE.

Natick, Mass., Jan. 1st, 1874.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your VEGETINE a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age; for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,

E. S. Best,

Mrs. L. C. P. Best.

H. R. Stevens, Esq.:

Dear Sir—From personal benefit received by its use, as well as from personal knowledge of those whose cures thereby have seemed almost miraculous, I can most heartily and sincerely recommend the VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is claimed to cure. James P. Ludlow,

Late pastor Calvary Baptist Church, Sacramento, Cal.

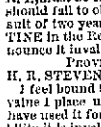
TO PHYSICIANS AND INVALIDS.



The flexible, self-applying Electric Disks, Dr. Charratt's invention, make without care or trouble, "gentle and prolonged applications" of very fine primary currents. They prove sufficiently active and durable for this peculiar method.

While worn by night or day for cold rheumatic neuralgia, lameness, weakness, or chronic pains, the disk is sure to generate and apply its constant multipolar electric action. Each metal acts as element and pole. They are wired avalanche for deep polar inworking. As shown by the expert judges, and in practice, these disks excel all other attempts at this sort of appliance. Nothing like them.

The Eastern War.

THE OCCUPATION OF BULGARIA.

Peace Still Hoped For.

RUSSIA ADVANCING.

A New Inquiry Into Bulgarian Atrocities.

London, Nov. 28.

A Times dispatch from Constantinople says that a new commission is soon to start for Philippopolis to inquire again into the atrocities. The previous commission convicted no Mussulman, but demanded that sentence of death be passed upon forty-two Bulgarians charged with complicity with the insurgents.

The Occupation of Bulgaria Foregone Conclusion.

The Times correspondent at Vienna says the general impression from the presence of the Marquis of Salisbury is pacific, but the belief is growing there and at Berlin that matters have gone too far to be easily stopped. The occupation of Bulgaria has become almost a political point of honor with Russia, from which she will not recede and in which nothing will induce Turkey to acquiesce. This occupation, now first on the Russian programme taken in connection with Salisbury's tour to the different courts, is not fortuitous.

The Programme of the Opening of the Conference.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says the Marquis of Salisbury is to reach Constantinople on Dec. 7th. The conference is to open after the preliminary meetings, which begin on December 8th, at the residence of Gen. Ignatieff, and at which the decision of the European powers is to be settled. The opening of the conference will imply that the divergences between the powers have been settled. Their resolution will then be submitted to the porte for its adhesion.

The Russians Advancing on the Danube.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times reports that the Russians are collecting pontoons to cross the Danube. The Turks have ten monitors in the Danube. Abdul Lerim Pasha is preparing to invade Wallachia, being convinced that Roumania will co-operate with Russia. The Turkish cabinet believes it to be a safer plan to fight with the Danube for a front, than a river forming an effectual barrier. The dispatch of volunteers to Servia has been resumed. The crisis in Belgrade is said to have been occasioned by the resistance of the cabinet to the establishment of a Russian dictatorship in case of war.

A More Hopeful View.

A dispatch from Constantinople to the Daily News says an understanding between the powers now appears to be more probable. The recent declarations of Russia have greatly improved the position of affairs. It is believed war will be avoided.

The Distress from the Cyclone in India.

A dispatch from Calcutta states that Sir Richard Temple, lieutenant governor of the presidency of Bengal, in his official report on the recent cyclone, which caused such a fearful destruction of human life in that presidency, says: Three storm-waves in rapid succession swept over an area of three thousand square miles. Accounts from Bombay presidency relative to the famine are gloomier. This year's rainfall in the distressed districts is not one-third the average fall. The prospects in the presidency of Madras also continue unfavorable.

Another Search for a Northwest Passage to be made by Capt. Young in the Pandora.

London, Nov. 27.

It is stated that Captain Allen Young, who commanded the Pandora in her recent trip to the Arctic regions, will next spring again attempt a northwest passage in that vessel.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NORTH CAROLINA.

ONE REPUBLICAN ELECTOR.

New York, Nov. 27.

A special from Greensborough says the returns show the vote for Hayes and Settle will reach, and probably exceed, 108,000. There can be no doubt that the democrats committed most glaring frauds. Tilden's majority will reach 14,000, and Vance will run some 4000 or 5000 behind him.

The democrats here are very much excited by the discovery of the fact that one of the Tilden electors, Wm. B. Glen, is ineligible. He is one of the commissioners appointed by the Southern Claims Commission to take testimony. This will give one republican elector in North Carolina.

Judge Settle has gone to Columbia, S. C.

Temporary Success of the Insurrectionist Iglesias.

Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 27.

A courier arrived today from Guanajuato, the native state of Iglesias, chief justice and ex-officio vice president of Mexico, with the news that Iglesias had assumed the powers of president of the republic in default of a legal election, and that he had appointed a full cabinet and other federal officers. The people of Guanajuato were enthusiastic in his support, and had raised a large sum of money to sustain his government. The Diaz revolutionists all recognize Iglesias as the legitimate president. Matamoras is the only place east of the Sierra Madre held by the partisans of Levado.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

Defeat of the Government Forces in a Two Days Fight.

New Orleans, Nov. 27, 7.05 P. M.

Advices from Mexico say that on the 17th General Martinez attacked General Canales with two thousand men, near Merje, on the San Luis road. The fight lasted two days, and many men were killed. Martinez was completely routed, with the loss of his whole force, eight guns and the supplies. He fled with four men. Martinez is a Lerdist general.

The Rumored Burning of Wade Hampton's House Incorrect.

Charleston, Nov. 27.

Inquiries are telegraphed here from the North regarding the truth of a rumor of the burning of Hampton's house by a mob. The rumor is unfounded and probably arose from the fact that the residence of Gen. Hampton's sister, about five miles from Columbia, was burned Friday night, supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Chicago, Nov. 27.

A fatal fire occurred, last night, in West Madison street, in this city. It is supposed to have been caused by the spontaneous combustion of liquor. The fire department was promptly on hand, but before the firemen could arrest the progress of the flames, four buildings were destroyed. The insurance patrol, by the use of ladders, saved seven lives, and it was not known until this morning, that any lives were lost. Four bodies, however, have been taken from the ruins of one of the buildings, two males and two females, George Broad and James Allen, strangers, recently from Boston, and two waiter girls, not known. Total loss of property $20,000, partly insured. The bodies seem to have been suffocated.

LOUISIANA.

DEPARTURE OF GEN. SHERIDAN.

New York, Nov. 27.

A New Orleans dispatch says Gen. Sheridan left for Chicago yesterday with his staff. Gen. Augur remains in command and says there is no possible danger of trouble. The democrats have been endeavoring to make a case to bring the returning board before some court, but the effort has been futile.

FROM NEW YORK.

WEED, TWEED AND TILDEN.

NEW YORK INSURANCE COMPANIES.

Weed and Tweed.

New York, Nov. 27.

Thurlow Weed, out of pity and former friendship, called on Tweed yesterday in Ludlow-street jail. Tweed intimated he had no disclosures to make against Governor Tilden. It is believed that Tweed's property in a great measure expenses and the shrinkage of real estate, and there are doubts if he could command any money of much amount. Mr. Weed says at a former interview he endeavored to induce the prisoner to restore his plunder, and the latter was willing to do so, but was dissuaded by his counsel.

Melted Away in Lawyers' Fees,

Insurance Offices and Real Estate.

The Herald says at present one hundred and forty seven million dollars in real estate are held by New York insurance companies, and the effect of the decline in values is a loss of forty millions. There is, in consequence, a feeling of uneasiness and apprehension on the part of policy-holders. The bulk of the assets of companies doing business in the city consists of first mortgages on houses and land principally in this city and state, although the sum invested in Philadelphia, Boston and some western cities is quite large.

Youthful Musicians.

At Beethoven hall, last evening, Master Binsberg, a lad hardly in his teens, led an orchestra of twenty youngsters no older than himself in a march from Wagner. The composition was well rendered.

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE ORDERS FOR TROOPS IN SOUTH CAROLINA AND LOUISIANA.

Washington, Nov. 27.

President Grant received, on Saturday, information that there was likely to be trouble in South Carolina when the Legislature meets tomorrow at Columbia. He therefore directed the issuance of an order simply to preserve the peace. The order is the same as the one issued in Kellogg's case in Louisiana.

Several members of the House of Representatives have already arrived in Washington, and a number more are expected early in the week. A caucus of the democratic members will be held on Saturday night to consider the subject of the Speakership, and also the policy to be pursued concerning the presidential complication.

One thing seems to be settled, which is that at the earliest moment a committee shall be in order to have an official report before the House in advance of the time fixed for counting the electoral vote.

Sent to Louisiana,

The Speakership has now become of vast importance, and the necessity of selecting a man of parliamentary skill and experience, of

Steady Nerve and Cool Head,

is so manifest that some of those who have heretofore been prominently spoken of in this connection have faded out of sight altogether. The two who have come prominently to the front in view of the altered condition of affairs are Messrs. Randall and Hewett.

New York Items.

New York, Nov. 27.

Hard frost last night; weather, clear and cold; wind northwest.

Two young girls from Boston, signing their names Miss Clark and sister, arrived here yesterday and took a room at the Putnam House on Fourth avenue, which they left at nine o'clock last evening, going along Twenty sixth street, since which time they have not been seen. The police are in active search, as despatches from Boston say they have run away.

Suit Against the Astor House.

The United States minister to Liberia, J. Milton Turner, has commenced a suit for $5000 damages against the proprietors of the Astor House, for refusing to let him have his room, which

Had Been Engaged

for him on his recent arrival from Europe. His name was entered for the room, but when the clerk saw that Mr. Turner was a colored man he refused to let him stay in the house, and Turner was obliged to go to the International Hotel.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA RETURNING BOARD

Proposed Conference of Hayes and Tilden.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 27.

The board of canvassers were brought before Judge Bond of the United States circuit court, today, on a writ of habeas corpus. Argument was heard on the jurisdiction of the court, and the prisoners were remanded to the care of the United States marshal until an answer is made by the prisoner's counsel.

New York, Nov. 27.

A special from Washington to the Graphic says: "News has been received here that a movement is on foot in leading circles to induce the two Presidential candidates,

Samuel J. Tilden and R. B. Hayes, to meet together with a certain number of friends on each side to see if the present dead-lock cannot be overcome. There is such paralysis of business that

Anything Would be Better than the uncertainty that now prevails, and the projectors of this scheme say that neither Tilden or Hayes would care to be president if suspicion was entertained that any wrong had been done to the other party. It is well known that if there was any suspicion as to the manner in which the votes had been secured for him. According to the scheme, Hayes and Tilden, each with four friends, are to meet in convention and agree as to their course so as to Give the Country a Chance of Peace and prevent civil strife. There is a general impression that the coming session of Congress will be a turbulent one, and that most of the time will be occupied in and contested Southern elections; still there is a great deal of work of special importance before Congress to be done in this short session. Even if the tariff should not be touched, nor the silver question adjusted, there are a great many schemes which it is known are to be put through Congress this session if the two houses can be made to agree. In the session which preceded the Presidential election, both parties were on their good behaviour, and between jobs of railroad and steamboat subsidies, equalization of bounty bills and other treasury plundering devices, were given the go by until the coming winter.

Hayes Would not Accept the Presidency

Quarrelling over Presidential Affairs

THE ELECTION MUDDLE.

It now seems to be quite generally conceded that the three disputed states will cast their votes for Hayes and Wheeler, but even this is not certain to elect them. Report now comes that the governor of Oregon proposes to play an important part in the programme. The New York Herald has information that the democratic governor of Oregon refuses to issue a certificate of the election of Watts, a postmaster voted for as a presidential elector, who would have been entitled to the certificate had he not been ineligible. In the similar case in Vermont the state canvassers decided that their duties were merely ministerial, and Sollace, the ineligible postmaster, receives a certificate of election on the presumption that he will not serve and that the other electors will fill the vacancy with a republican. But Governor Grover, of Oregon, intends to give a certificate to Coghlan, the democrat receiving the highest number of votes, and on the strength of this certificate Coghlan will seek to act with the Electoral College and cast his vote for Tilden and Hendricks. The republicans will attempt to prevent this by judicial action but they may not succeed, and in that case Mr. Tilden will have a majority of the electors on the face of the certificates sent to the president of the Senate to be counted.

Such a contingency would necessitate a change of programme on the part of the republicans. It has seemed to be their intention, of late, to take the ground that the certificates sent from the several States are conclusive evidence of the choice of electors and that neither the President of the Senate nor Congress has any authority to go behind them. This would be a safe position for the republicans if the electoral votes of the three disputed States sufficed to elect Hayes. But it would avail them nothing if Tilden should have a majority in the other States. If the Electoral College of Oregon gives two votes for Hayes and one for Tilden the only possibility of defeating Tilden lies in rejecting the one democratic vote from Oregon. To do this the republicans will be forced to change their tactics and to discard the doctrine that the regular certificates received by the President of the Senate are conclusive. But if Congress can go behind the Oregon certificates they can also go behind the certificates from South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, and the republicans will be equally at sea whether they maintain that it requires both houses to reject an electoral vote or only one. If it requires the consent of both the House will decline to reject the disputed Oregon vote and Tilden will have a majority. If one house alone can reject votes those of the three disputed States will pretty certainly be thrown out. With so much depending on one vote the proceedings in Oregon will be watched with lively interest.

The State Centennial Buildings.—Little or nothing now remains in any of the state buildings except furniture, and from some that too is gone. There are twenty one such buildings, and about a dozen of them are sold. In addition to those already announced as having been "knocked down" are the following: The Iowa building, sold for $575 to Mr. Bower of New Jersey, who intends removing it to his farm, about ten miles from Camden; the Massachusetts building, for $1500, to a gentleman of that state, who will re-erect it near Boston, and the Illinois building to Mr. William Strang, who will remove it to his land on the Pennsylvania railroad, some miles from this city. Workmen are dismembering some of the purchased structures. A West Virginian has offered $1000 for the building representing his state. Although it cost $6000, it is believed that his offer will be accepted. Nothing definite, however, can be known regarding the disposition of this building, nor those of Pennsylvania, Arkansas, and one or two other states, until their respective legislatures meet. The Arkansas building, a large, tent-like structure, cost $3500, and a gentleman proposes to buy and remove it to Ocean Grove for camp-meeting and Sunday school purposes.—[Philadelphia Times.

THE PROPOSED EXHIBIT OF RHODE ISLAND'S PART OF THE CENTENNIAL.

We are informed that the committees of the Rhode Island society for the encouragement of domestic industry and of the Providence association of mechanics and manufacturers, who were appointed to inquire into the practicability of holding an exhibition in this city, of the articles shown by citizens of Rhode Island at Philadelphia, have decided that it is inexpedient to attempt the opening of such an exhibition. Various reasons have induced them to come to this conclusion, but the chief one is the apparent indifference on the part of those exhibitors to the matter. Circulars of inquiry were addressed to the exhibitors, but replies were received from only about one-third of those addressed; and of those replies only about two-thirds were favorable to the exhibition. Many of those who had sent to Philadelphia, had already sold their goods, others desired to send their articles to their agents in Philadelphia or New York, while others gave no reason for declining. The committee were also embarrassed by difficulty of finding a suitable place for the proposed exhibition. No place sufficiently capacious and central could be found, where steam power could be had to operate machinery, as was desired by several persons who were willing to co-operate. The inquiry respecting a permanent exhibition of Rhode Island goods was not so much favored as was the temporary exhibition of the centennial goods, although it found many supporters.—[Prov. THE DAY.

The Western Union Telegraph Company reduced its rates yesterday to the principal stations.

The news boys in New York are crying the latest news from the war in South Carolina.

Nobody is allowed to vote in Providence after sunset. It is about time our own city adopted a similar regulation.

It is said that Tweed felt very much comforted at witnessing the crowd that met him on the pier when he landed in New York.

Persons who have read the telegraphic news from the south during the past three weeks will come to the conclusion that the liars are not all dead yet.

And now there is an ineligible elector in North Carolina. These discoveries need not comfort anybody for no decent man would accept the presidency on such a technicality.

The action of the Middletown town meeting yesterday may have an important bearing on the water question in this city. We have not heard from Mr. Norman but suspect he will think that our neighbors are estimating the value of the pond at a rather high figure. The conditions are certainly numerous and some of them likely to be more vexatious than valuable.

An exchange gives us some statistics regarding the whaling business of the country, which ought to be of special interest at this time, inasmuch as this industry has received a fresh shock from the damage reported done the North Pacific fleet. In 1870 thirty-three whaling vessels were ground to pieces by the icebergs of the Arctic seas, and this year a dozen more suffered the same fate. The whaling fleet as it has survived all these recent misfortunes numbers 180 vessels in this country, of which 130 belong to New Bedford, 21 to Provincetown, 6 to Boston and 12 to New London, the other dozen being distributed about various ports of the country. A large proportion of these are now engaged in hunting the sperm whale. During the past year three of the largest sperm whales were taken by New Bedford whalers. They yielded respectively 159, 161 and 162 barrels of oil. One little New Bedford schooner, which went out last December, returned a month ago with a net profit of $5000 for her owner. The average value of whaling vessels is about $10,000, and the total capital invested in New Bedford in this industry is probably over $5,000,000. Massachusetts is essentially the whaler state, and there is enterprise enough there to stick to the business as long as anything can be made from it.

MIDDLETOWN.

A LIVELY TOWN MEETING.—THE GRANT OF EASTON'S POND AND NUMEROUS CONDITIONS IMPOSED.—PROPOSED NEW TOWN HOUSE.—SPEECH OF MAJOR BULL.—THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH MR. NORMAN, ETC.

The meeting of the free holders of Middletown was held at the Town House yesterday to take action on the proposition of George H. Norman with reference to Easton's pond and to consider the subject of building a new town house. The attendance was considered quite large though but about one fourth of the taxpayers were present and much more than the usual interest on such occasions was manifest.

The meeting was called to order and the first business was the consideration of the report of the committee previously appointed to consider the question of building a new town house. The report of the committee was as follows:

The undersigned, appointed a committee to consider the propriety of providing better accommodation for the voters of Middletown at their public meetings, and for the meetings of the council, beg leave to report:

First—The present accommodation being, in their opinion, inadequate, they recommend the construction of a new building at a cost not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars, including horse sheds and other necessary conveniences.

Second—There are two lots owned by the town, the one now in use, and the other called the "Mill Lot," either of which would be suitable for a "Town House," the choice of location being determined by the voters. Should the preference be given to the "Mill Lot," the other could, no doubt, be sold for a sum sufficient to cover the proposed outlay, or it could be retained for a poor-house, pound, and other purposes as the wants of the town, in the future, might require. Respectively submitted,

G. W. Willard,
Noël Coggeshall,
Fred. C. Lawton,
H. Bull,
} Committee.

At a subsequent stage of the proceedings Major Bull spoke on the subject urging a favorable consideration of the proposition. He said that something should be done to relieve the present embarrassment and reminded the meeting that Mr. William Bailey had offered $2500 for the present house and lot, which is a very good price, and it would be well for the town to accept. There appeared to be a manifest desire to have a new hall, but the only trouble which is anticipated is in the location. Today there were about one-fourth of the voters present, and yet the air during the two hours session was stifling which shows the necessity of a new building. The meeting altogether was a very orderly one, yet at one time there was a prospect of the feathers flying, but one gentleman remarked that "it was the most orderly town meeting he ever knew." It is not known whether the resolutions will be agreeable to Mr. Norman, but the majority of those present were of the opinion that the proceedings of today will settle the matter.

The report of the committee was received and will be acted upon at a special meeting to be held two weeks from the time of the present session.

The committee on the Easton's Pond question reported and after the introduction of several amendments the report was adopted as follows:

The committee to whom was referred the application of George H. Norman to use the water of Easton's Pond, lying within the precincts of Middletown, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions.

Resolved, That the privilege of taking water from said pond for the purpose of supplying the inhabitants of Newport with water, be, and the same is hereby granted to George H. Norman, and to his successors upon the following terms and conditions:

The said Norman and his successors to be at all and every expense in damming, dredging, embanking, road and bridge making, right of way, and damage to property of individuals, in the execution of his design, and in maintaining the same, said Norman and his successors fully idemnifying the town from every liability growing out of its acts in making the grant, in consideration of receiving said privilege. The said Norman and his successors to construct a substantial roadway with proper safeguards, and connecting the same with Aquidneck avenue; thence around the pond northerly, connecting with Bliss road, and southerly to the public highway in the rear of the bathing houses on the "first beach," so called, as set forth in his proposition to the abuttors on said pond, which roadway shall be dedicated to the public. The said Norman and his successors shall supply to the inhabitants of Middletown the water from the pond on the same terms as to the inhabitants of Newport when in the opinion of the council, the necessity shall arise; but the said Norman or his successors shall not be required to lay pipes for such supply to a greater extent than the revenue to be derived from the taking of the water shall warrant.

Resolved, That the rights hereinafter enumerated be, and the same are hereby reserved by the town:

To stock the pond with fish, and to make regulations for preserving and taking the same; of the inhabitants of the town to take water for domestic use and for stock, to cut ice, to skate, to row and sail in boats, and to other uses in no way prejudicial to the waters, dams, embankments, roadways, works for supply, etc.; but no party, association of parties, or corporation shall be granted special privileges by the town, or its council whereby the supply of water shall be curtailed beyond the requirements for domestic use and for stock as aforesaid, or the purity of the water impaired.

Resolved, That the privilege hereby granted, and the agreement entered into, shall continue in force so long as the waters of said pond shall be a necessity in the supply for the inhabitants of the city and town of Newport, and no longer, when said pond, its waters and betterments, shall revert to said town of Middletown.

Resolved, That the proposition of the town for granting the privilege set forth in the foregoing resolutions shall remain open for three months from this date and no longer. If accepted by the said Norman or his successors, a contract shall be entered into without delay, and the roadway and connections, as specified, shall be completed within two years from the first day of January, A. D. 1877.

Resolved, That five freeholding voters of the town, to be elected by the voters of this meeting with the five councilmen of the town, be constituted a committee to carry into effect these resolutions, with liberty to employ counsel at their discretion, and the acts of said committee shall be binding upon the town, the five councilmen alone to sign, on the part of the town, the agreement entered into.

The committee appointed in accordance with the foregoing resolution consists of Henry Bull, W. Willard, R. S. Chase, Wm. C. Peckham and Geo. P. Leonard.

On motion the following resolution was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That George H. Norman, of the city and county of Newport, be and he is hereby granted a right of way across the easterly end of that lot of land known as the "Bennett lot" now under the control of this town, and along the westerly margin of Easton's Pond, said right of way to be sufficient to enable the said Norman to construct a road fifty feet wide across said lot on the westerly margin of said Easton's Pond, and in the manner said Norman has agreed to build said road, with the other proprietors of land abutting on said pond; provided, however, that this grant is made subject to the rights of the present lessee of said lot and his assigns, and that he be and he is hereby authorized to make and execute all needful conveyances in law for securing to said Norman said right of way.

WHICH IS IT?—Judge Burges in his charge to the grand jury, last week, in alluding to the fact of there being but one complaint to be placed before them, facetiously remarked that either the county was in such a desirable moral condition that little or no action of the grand jury was required, or else that the average state of morality was so bad that there was no one in a condition to make complaint against anybody else. Not a very complimentary alternative, surely, judge.

HONORS.—By invitation of the Rhode Island Amateur Rifle Club of Providence William M. Farrow of this city took part with them in a friendly contest with the Attleboro Rifle Team on Saturday last. At the 500 yards range Mr. Farrow made the fifth best score, and at the 200 yards, off hand match, he stood at the head of the list of eighteen competitors, beating F. J. Rabbeth of Providence, who is conceded to be second to no one in the state at long or short range shooting. We mention this in justice to Mr. Farrow as the reports in the Providence papers give the impression to those not acquainted with the subject, that Mr. Rabbeth made the best score, whereas he was second.

THANKSGIVING.

The Rev. Mr. Wheeler of the Central Baptist Church, on Sunday last, after reading the governor's proclamation and announcing that services would be held in accordance therewith on Thursday morning next, made an excellent suggestion, which may be well extended for the use of all. It was that his members should endeavor to recollect one particular thing for which they had cause during the past year, for thanksgiving, or thankfulness. For, although the condition of our beloved country is not in the relations of harmony and brotherhood, which every true patriot and lover of his country would desire as a basis of thanksgiving, there are few, indeed there can be none, in so forlorn a condition as not to have at least one mercy in remembrance during the past year, for which heartfelt thanksgiving should be rendered to the "Giver of every good and perfect gift."

SPORTS FOR THANKSGIVING DAY.—The competitions in rifle shooting to take place on Thanksgiving day already excite considerable interest and the prospects are, if the day is fair that quite a large number of shooters will be present. It is said that many will try their skill with the rifle for the first time. Numerous prizes are offered, and the competitions will consist of a match for offhand shooting at 200 yards, and one at some distance for a champion marksman's gold badge valued at fifteen dollars. This has to be won three times before becoming the property of any competitor, so we look for some sharp shooting before it is finally won. There will also be a contest for rapid and accurate shooting combined, in which the object is to see how many times each competitor can fire in one minute, but the best score and not necessarily the largest number of times firing will take the first prize. Another contest is to see who can fire ten shots in the shortest time and will be a test of the rifle as well as the rifleman. Stewart's drag will leave Washington square at 9.45 A. M., to convey parties to the range, and will leave at other times during the morning, of which notice will no doubt be given.

JUSTICE COURT.

TUESDAY, NOV. 28, 1876.

Michael Manning was arraigned this morning upon a complaint for vagrancy, but the trial of the complaint failed to substantiate it to the satisfaction of the court, and he was discharged.

Margaret Curtis, wife of Thomas Curtis, and Bridget McMahan, a minor, were arraigned this morning for the larceny of clothes which were the property of James Bohanna, and which had been left out on the grass to dry. They were convicted and Margaret Curtis was sentenced to ten days in the county jail, and Bridget to the reform school for and during her minority.

MILITARY INSPECTION.

THE ARTILLERY INSPECTED BY QUARTERMASTER GENERAL DENNIS AND STAFF.—VISITORS.—THE COMPANY HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED.—NEW UNIFORMS.—THE ROSTER.

The annual inspection of the Newport Artillery Company took place last evening at their armory on Clarke street. The officers and members of the command assembled at their quarters at seven o'clock, and a few minutes later the men fell in line and gave attention to roll call. After the call, Lieut. Col. Sherman, who was in command, put the men through the manual of arms and a short drill after which they came to parade rest and waited the coming of Quartermaster General C. E. Dennis and staff. At a quarter past eight Gen. Dennis, accompanied by Capt. F. E. Arnold, Assistant Quartermaster General, and Capt. A. J. Cushing, made his appearance in the hall and the command was immediately formed in companies across the armory for inspection. Gen. Dennis at once began the inspection of the men, their arms and equipments, making a thorough and detailed examination. While this was going on Captain Johnson and Lieutenant Salisbury, of the United Train of Artillery of Providence, came in and made the rounds with the general handling several of the arms themselves.

After the inspection General Dennis made a few remarks to the officers and men complimenting them very highly upon their soldierly appearance. He said that he had made a more thorough examination and inspection of all the property belonging to the company as well as the property belonging to the state (which the company had in charge this year than he had done last year and he must say that he had never found them in a more excellent condition than at present. He had inspected a great many military organizations in this state and out of the state in his time but he had never, in all of his military experience, found the equipments and arms of a command in such splendid condition as this one. He had no hesitation in saying that the Newport Artillery was the best equipped and best drilled body of men in the State. He went on to say that he was exceedingly sorry that Col. Powel was not present as he should like personally to compliment him upon the high order of discipline of the officers and men under his command, but he did not see after all that the colonel's absence made any difference in their fine soldierly appearance or drill. He further stated that he exceedingly regretted that he could not have accompanied the command to Philadelphia last summer, and was sorry that they could not have made it convenient to stop at Providence either on their way going or coming as he was certain that they would have received a hearty welcome.

The general thanked the command for their attention and said he was proud that the state of Rhode Island could boast of such a fine company.

After Gen. Dennis had concluded his remarks Col. Sherman put the men through the manual of arms and a few battalion movements and then dismissed them.

The Newport band were in attendance and enlivened the occasion with excellent music at short intervals during the evening.

Several prominent personages were present and expressed themselves highly pleased. After the inspection the band played several pieces and shortly after ten the assemblage dispersed.

There have been made large additions in the company's property within the past year. The men have been furnished with a new fatigue uniform consisting of cap and blouse, also a new pair of dress pants, new dress hats, overcoats, knapsacks, canteens, gun covers, etc. There have been several new members added to the company during the year, and the officers and men have not been allowed to forget their tactics for want of practice, having had two drills a week most of the past winter and summer. The following is the complete roster of the company:—

THE CASE OF MR. CORLISS.

The constitution of the United States, Art. II, Sec. 1, provides that no "person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an elector."

Cushing, in his Law and Practice of Legislative Assemblies, Sec. 175, says "If an election is made of a person, who is ineligible, that is, incapable of being elected, the election of such person is absolutely void."

If the electors know, or are to be presumed to know, of the disability of the person voted for, the votes given for the ineligible candidate will be thrown out: ib. Sec. 178. But if the voters do not know, and are not presumed to know, of the ineligibility of the candidate the votes are to be counted—ib. Sec. 180.

An office is the right to exercise a public function or employment, and to take the fees or emoluments belonging to it. Bouv. Law Dict. Title, office.

Says Chief Justice Tilghman in Lehman vs. Sutherland 3 Sergt., and R— 149. "The word office is of very vague and indefinite import. Everything concerning the administration of justice, or the general interests of society, may be supposed to be within the meaning of the constitution (of Pa.,) especially if fees or emoluments are annexed to the office. But there are matters of temporary and local concern, which although comprehended in the term office have not been thought to be embraced by the constitution." This case is an interesting study to persons who are considering whether Mr. Corliss was an officer of the United States disqualified from holding the office of an elector under the provisions of the federal constitution to which we have referred.

The case was argued by Sargeant and Hopkinson, and the opinion was given by one of the most distinguished judges that has ever sat upon the bench of a state court.

Whatever may be the right of Mr. Corliss to the office, we claim the law to be that if he receives a certificate of election his acts as an officer de facto are valid until there is a judgment of ouster against him or he is enjoined from executing the office by a competent tribunal.

Electors are state officers, elected under state laws, yet a negative qualification for this office is fixed in the constitution of the United States. It is quite possible that for the prevention of any infringement of the federal authority the federal courts have jurisdiction, adequate to that end, and that the state courts would have jurisdiction to turn Mr. Corliss out of office upon proceedings under a quo warranto if they should find him to be disqualified.

AN APPEAL

TO FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC OF NEWPORT, R. I.

The three colored churches of this city will meet in Touro Chapel, Thursday evening, Nov. 30th, to hold a Thanksgiving and praise meeting. The Rev. M. Van Horne assisted by Rev. H. N. Jeter will conduct the services. The public and friends in general are cordially invited to meet with us. A Thanksgiving offering will be lifted for the benefit of Touro Chapel. Let every one come prepared to give a liberal contribution, which will greatly assist us in a needy time. The ladies will have a bountiful repast prepared for all after the conclusion of the services. They will be pleased to serve all with the various refreshments incident to this season of the year. We extend you our heartfelt thanks for your generous aid and support in the past and feel assured that we may rely upon the same efficient aid and Christian zeal and liberality in the future.

J. G. VERSEN, Pastor.

NEW BOOKS.

SNIP AND WHIP, and some other boys. By Elizabeth A. Davis. Boston: Lee & Shepard.

This is another of the list of popular holiday books from these enterprising publishers—several of which we have already noticed. It is a story well told and will please those in whose hands it is placed. It is for sale at Hammett's.

OH, WHY SHOULD THE SPIRIT OF MORTAL BE PROUD, by Wm. Knox, illustrated by Miss L. B. Humphrey and published by Lee and Shepard, Boston.

This poem, which was brought into prominence from the fact of its being a favorite of President Lincoln's, has been issued in handsome form as a gift book for the holidays and is similar in style to Nearer My God to Thee, published last year by the same firm. Miss Humphrey has a full page illustration for each stanza, and they are exquisitely drawn and serve to greatly brighten the poem which is somewhat of a lugubrious nature. The binding, typography etc., are the perfection of book making and it is a very desirable holiday gift and will be welcomed by the great number of lovers of the poem.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

COMFORT FOR UNEASY STOMACHS.

That incomparable anti-dyspeptic cordial carminative and appetizer, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, yields comfort to the uneasy stomach with a degree of promptitude most gratifying to the victim of indigestion. The eradication of dyspepsia by the Bitters is, of course, accompanied by the disappearance of every one of its multifarious and puzzling symptoms, among which may be mentioned as the most prominent, heartburn, flatulence, abdominal oppression after eating, and sinking at other times, palpitations of the heart, water brash, vertigo, sick headache and nausea. Hostetter's Bitters tone and regulate the various organs which assist in the processes of assimilation, secretion and evacuation, fortify the system against malarious fevers, and develop in the enfeebled system fresh stores of vitality. In efficacy, as in popularity, they surpass any tonic or regulating medicine of the age.

SCARCITY OF MONEY.

There is no doubt but the present situation of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on when children are liable to croup, whooping cough, etc. Coughs and colds will prevail everywhere, and consumption with other throat and lung diseases will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected, doctor bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your druggist James H. Taylor.

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1876.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION BY HIS EXCELLENCY, HENRY LIPPITT, GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

One hundred years ago, this month, our Fathers, then entering upon the long and bloody contest, which finally resulted in establishing our independence as a nation, with hearts bowed down in sorrow, and spirits oppressed with the magnitude of the struggle they had undertaken, were called upon, by special vote of the General Assembly, to humble themselves before Almighty God and to observe Thursday, the 28th day of November 1776, as a day of "Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer," "as all men are especially called upon to do in times of public distress and calamity," asking them to beseech God "to give to the Generals, Commanders, Officers, and Forces in the service of the United States by land and sea, prudence and fortitude, and to crown their arms with success, so that our cruel and unrelenting enemies may be compelled to peace upon safe and honorable terms," and particularly that He would "be graciously pleased to afford His protection to this State, which in so peculiar a manner is exposed to violence and depredations of the enemy."

Standing as we now do, in this centennial year, upon the threshold of the second century of our existence as a Nation, and contrasting our present condition with that of our fathers, one hundred years ago, do we not all find abundant reason for thankfulness and praise to our Heavenly Father for his many and abundant mercies?

No calamity now overwhelms us. No enemy threatens our shores. We are a great, a prosperous and a united people, whose strength commands respect both at home and abroad.

For these reasons and in accordance with our time-honored custom, and the request of the President of the United States, I hereby appoint THURSDAY, THE THIRTEETH DAY OF NOVEMBER, INST., AS A DAY OF PUBLIC THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE.

I earnestly request the people of the State on that day to abstain from all secular employments, to assemble in their usual places of worship and around their family firesides and, while remembering to relieve the wants of the poor and friendless, to offer up their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for care and protection of our fathers, and to pray that we may be endowed with the virtue and wisdom necessary to enable us to transmit the priceless heritage received from them to our posterity.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State to be affixed, at Providence, this tenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, of the founding of the State, the two hundred and forty-first, and of Independence the one hundred and first.

(L. S.)

HENRY LIPPITT.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S
SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels,
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to Your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints, DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for
"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"
Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper.

TO THE LOVERS of STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS.

THE ATTENTION of the public is invited to the following views from negative by J. A. WILLIAMS, which is believed to be the best and largest collection of the gems of Newport scenery ever offered.

The negatives are all carefully taken with the best materials and instruments and aim to present not merely patches of landscapes from points chosen at random as is the case with many others, but, views which shall combine within themselves all the best elements of a picture in the artistic sense.

We would call particular attention to our new cabinet size views taken the present season, 1876, which exhibit with all the fidelity of the stereoscope,

Parties who may wish to make presents to their friends abroad, or to carry home memento of Newport, cannot make a more acceptable choice than by selecting from the many beautiful views of Newport and surroundings,

Fall Campaign of 1876.

TO ALL who wish to go through the exciting presidential election with their good reputation unspotted, I will say that the best and cheapest way is to come direct to my carriage depot and purchase a good serviceable carriage with which you can rush over and by all political orators who are trying to make the dear people think just now that the salvation of our great country depends upon the people following their advice instead of each voter thinking and acting for himself. If each voter will follow this advice our country is safe.

I offer to sell cheap the following

CARRIAGES:

9 top buggies all in good order and newly painted.
4 half top barouches,
1 Brownell carryall; second-hand, in good order,

1 new express wagon,
1 new open business wagon cheap,
4 double express wagons,
1 two horse extension carryall,
2 nice dog carts,
3 two horse sleighs, (better buy now,) and several others.

Thanking my friends for their very liberal patronage during the past. By their kindness I have been able to dispose of over forty different carriages—a very good sale for Newport. I still hope by fair dealing to merit a continuance of their favors.

HOUSE PAINTING.

Now is the time to make arrangements for fall and winter house painting, and as I don't propose to call and annoy people at their residences by asking them for work and promising to do more work and better work than my brother painters can do for the same money; but, if people wanting anything done in the painting line from glazing a light of glass to painting a hotel, will call on me or drop a note to box 24, I will do the utmost to please, and will warrant all work entrusted to my care, to be done as agreed and at the time specified. My reference is the parties whom I have worked for, for the past ten years or more.

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
